OFFICE OF SPECIAL MASTERS

No. 21-2025V

Filed: May 8, 2025

STACY DANFORTH,

Petitioner,

v.

SECRETARY OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES,

Respondent.

Special Master Horner

Ronald Craig Homer, Conway, Homer, P.C., Boston, MA, for petitioner.

Mary Novakovic, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC, for respondent.

DECISION ON ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS¹

On October 15, 2021, Stacy Danforth filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² (the "Vaccine Act"). Petitioner alleged that she suffered a Table shoulder injury related to vaccine administrations ("SIRVA") as a result of a tetanus, diphtheria, and acellular pertussis ("Tdap") vaccination received on October 20, 2018. Petition at 1. On May 30, 2024, respondent filed a proffer, which I adopted as my decision awarding compensation on the same day. (ECF Nos. 41-42.)

On November 5, 2024, petitioner filed a motion for attorneys' fees and costs. (ECF No. 47.) ("Fees App."). Petitioner requests attorneys' fees in the amount of $17,520.00 and attorneys' costs in the amount of $588.85. Fees App. at 1-2. Pursuant to General

If, upon review, I agree that the identified material fits within this definition, I will redact such material from public access.

Order No. 9, petitioner has indicated that she has not personally incurred any costs in pursuit of this litigation. (ECF No. 48). Thus, the total amount requested is $18,108.85. On November 12, 2024, respondent filed a response to petitioner's motion. (ECF No. 49.) Respondent argues that "[n]either the Vaccine Act nor Vaccine Rule 13 requires respondent to file a response to a request by a petitioner for an award of attorneys' fees and costs." Id. at 1. Respondent adds, however, that he "is satisfied the statutory requirements for an award of attorneys' fees and costs are met in this case." Id. at 2. Respondent "respectfully requests that the Court exercise its discretion and determine a reasonable award for attorneys' fees and costs." Id. at 4. Petitioner did not file a reply thereafter.

This matter is now ripe for consideration.

I. Reasonable Attorneys' Fees and Costs

The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs. § 15(e). The Federal Circuit has approved the lodestar approach to determine reasonable attorneys' fees and costs under the Vaccine Act. Avera v. Sec'y of Health & Human Servs., 515 F.3d 1343, 1347 (Fed. Cir. 2008). This is a two-step process. Id. at 1347-48. First, a court determines an "initial estimate . . . by 'multiplying the number of hours reasonably expended on the litigation times a reasonable hourly rate.'" Id. (quoting Blum v. Stenson, 465 U.S. 886, 888 (1984)). Second, the court may make an upward or downward departure from the initial calculation of the fee award based on specific findings. Id. at 1348.

It is "well within the special master's discretion" to determine the reasonableness of fees. Saxton v. Sec'y of Health & Human Servs., 3 F.3d 1517, 1521-22 (Fed. Cir. 1993); see also Hines v. Sec'y of Health & Human Servs., 22 Cl. Ct. 750, 753 (1991). ("[T]he reviewing court must grant the special master wide latitude in determining the reasonableness of both attorneys' fees and costs."). Applications for attorneys' fees must include contemporaneous and specific billing records that indicate the work performed and the number of hours spent on said work. See Savin v. Sec'y of Health & Human Servs., 85 Fed. Cl. 313, 316-18 (2008). Such applications, however, should not include hours that are "excessive, redundant, or otherwise unnecessary." Saxton, 3 F.3d at 1521 (quoting Hensley v. Eckerhart, 461 U.S. 424, 434 (1983)).

Reasonable hourly rates are determined by looking at the "prevailing market rate" in the relevant community. See Blum, 465 U.S. at 894-95. The "prevailing market rate" is akin to the rate "in the community for similar services by lawyers of reasonably comparable skill, experience and reputation." Id. at 895, n.11. Petitioners bear the burden of providing adequate evidence to prove that the requested hourly rate is reasonable. Id.

Special masters can reduce a fee request sua sponte, without providing petitioners notice and opportunity to respond. See Sabella v. Sec'y of Health & Human Servs., 86 Fed. Cl. 201, 209 (Fed. Cl. 2009). When determining the relevant fee reduction, special masters need not engage in a line-by-line analysis of petitioners' fee application.

Broekelschen v. Sec’y of Health & Human Servs., 102 Fed. Cl. 719, 729 (Fed. Cl. 2011). Instead, they may rely on their experience with the Vaccine Program to determine the reasonable number of hours expended. Wasson v. Sec’y of Dep’t of Health & Human Servs., 24 Cl. Ct. 482, 484 (1991), rev’d on other grounds and aff’d in relevant part, 988 F.2d 131 (Fed. Cir. 1993). Just as “[t]rial courts routinely use their prior experience to reduce hourly rates and the number of hours claimed in attorney fee requests . . . Vaccine program special masters are also entitled to use their prior experience in reviewing fee applications.” Saxton, 3 F.3d at 1521.

a. Hourly Rates

Petitioner requests the following rates of compensation for her attorneys at Conway Homer: for Mr. Ronald Homer, $475.00 per hour for work performed in 2022, $500.00 per hour for work performed in 2023, and $525.00 per hour for work performed in 2024; for Ms. Christina Ciampolillo, $380.00 per hour for work performed in 2021, $425.00 per hour for work performed in 2022, and $470.00 per hour for work performed in 2023; for Mr. Joseph Pepper, $415.00 per hour for work performed on 2022, $285.00 per hour for work performed on 2019, $330.00 per hour for work performed on 2020 and 2021, $385.00 per hour for work performed on 2022, and $485.00 per hour for work performed in 2024; for Ms. Meredith Daniels, $485.00 per hour for work performed in 2024; for Mr. Nathaniel Enos, $280.00 per hour for work performed in 2022, $320.00 per hour for work performed in 2023, and $360.00 per hour for work performed in 2024; and for Mr. Patrick Kelly, $305.00 per hour for work performed in 2023, and $345.00 per hour for work performed in 2024. For paralegals, petitioner requests the following rates: $155.00 per hour for work performed in 2021, $170.00 per hour for work performed in 2022, $185.00 per hour for work performed in 2023, AND $195.00 per hour for work performed in 2024.

These rates are consistent with what counsel have previously been awarded for their Vaccine Program work and I find them to be reasonable herein. See Vanore v. Sec’y of Health & Human Servs., No. 21-870V, 2025 WL 407022 (Fed. Cl. Spec. Mstr. Jan. 3, 2025).

b. Hours Expended

Attorneys’ fees are awarded for the “number of hours reasonably expended on the litigation.” Avera, 515 F.3d at 1348. Counsel should not include in their fee requests hours that are “excessive, redundant, or otherwise unnecessary.” Saxton, 3 F.3d at 1521. While attorneys may be compensated for non-attorney-level work, the rate must be comparable to what would be paid for a paralegal or secretary. See O’Neill v. Sec’y of Health & Human Servs., No. 08–243V, 2015 WL 2399211, at *9 (Fed. Cl. Spec. Mstr. Apr. 28, 2015). Clerical and secretarial tasks should not be billed at all, regardless of who performs them. See, e.g., McCulloch, 2015 WL 5634323, at *26.

Upon review, the overall number of hours billed appears to be reasonable. I have reviewed the billing entries and find that they adequately describe the work done on the case and the amount of time spent on that work. I do not find any of the entries to be objectionable, nor has respondent identified any as such. Petitioner is therefore awarded final attorneys' fees of $17,520.00.

c. Attorneys' Costs

Like attorneys' fees, a request for reimbursement of attorneys' costs must be reasonable. Perreira v. Sec'y of Health & Human Servs., 27 Fed. Cl. 29, 34 (Fed. Cl. 1992). Petitioner requests a total of $588.85 in attorneys' costs, including the acquisition of medical records, the Court's filing fee, postage, and copies. Fees App. Ex. A at 24-25. The costs requested by Conway Homer in this matter appear reasonable. Accordingly, petitioner is awarded the full amount of costs sought.

II. Conclusion

In accordance with the Vaccine Act, 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(e) (2012), I have reviewed the billing records and costs in this case and finds that petitioner's request for fees and costs is reasonable. I find it reasonable to compensate petitioner and his counsel as follows: a lump sum in the amount of $18,108.85, representing reimbursement for petitioner's attorneys' fees and costs, to be paid through an ACH deposit to petitioner's counsel's IOLTA account for prompt disbursement.

In the absence of a motion for review filed pursuant to RCFC Appendix B, the Clerk of the Court shall enter judgment in accordance herewith.³

IT IS SO ORDERED.
